Deaths and Funerals

FRANK CALDWELL

SYDENHAM—The funeral of Francis Sheldon (Frank) Caldwell was held at the O. H. Berry Funeral Home, with Rev. D. G. Kilpatrick of Grace United Church in charge of the service.

Mr. Caldwell's death occurred in the Hotel Dieu Hospital, Kingston, where he had been a patient for the past seven months.

He was a descendant of pioneer settlers of this area. He was born on October 1, 1877, a son of Robert Caldwell and his wife, Elizabeth Powley, on the family homestead east of Sydenham. He was unmarried.

At the turn of the century, he travelled to western Canada, where he spent three years. He then returned to the family farm here, following the occupation of farming, until his retirement a few years ago.

He was keenly interested in municipal and political affairs. He served several terms as a member of Loughboro Township council. In the last federal election he was the second oldest person to vote at his poll.

For almost 50 years, he played in Sydenham Brass Band.

In his later years, he became well-known through his hobby of coin and stamp collecting. His collections contained many rare and valuable specimens.

He was the last surviving member of a large family. Brothers and sisters predeceasing him were Merton, Malcolm, Sherman, Lloyd (killed in action in World War 1), Emma and Mrs. Percy Foxton (Lillian).

Nearest surviving relatives are several nieces and nephews.

Pall-bearers were neighbors Ernest Moon, William Harris, Harry Stoness and nephews Rene Laporte, Edward Wilson and Hilliard Watson.

Interment was in the family plot in Sydenham Cemetery.

P. 946. Lyon Family of Frontenac County

Philander Lyon married Margaret Friel. Two of their sons were:

Robert, married Mary Ann Darling. They settled in Norwich Township, County of Oxford, Ontario. Their children were:

1. Theodore, married and settled in Michigan.
2. Emily, married John F. Brown and settled in Florida.
3. Frank, married and settled in Norwich Township.

Lyman, married Abigail Ann Darling. They settled in Stonington Township, Frontenac County. Their children were:

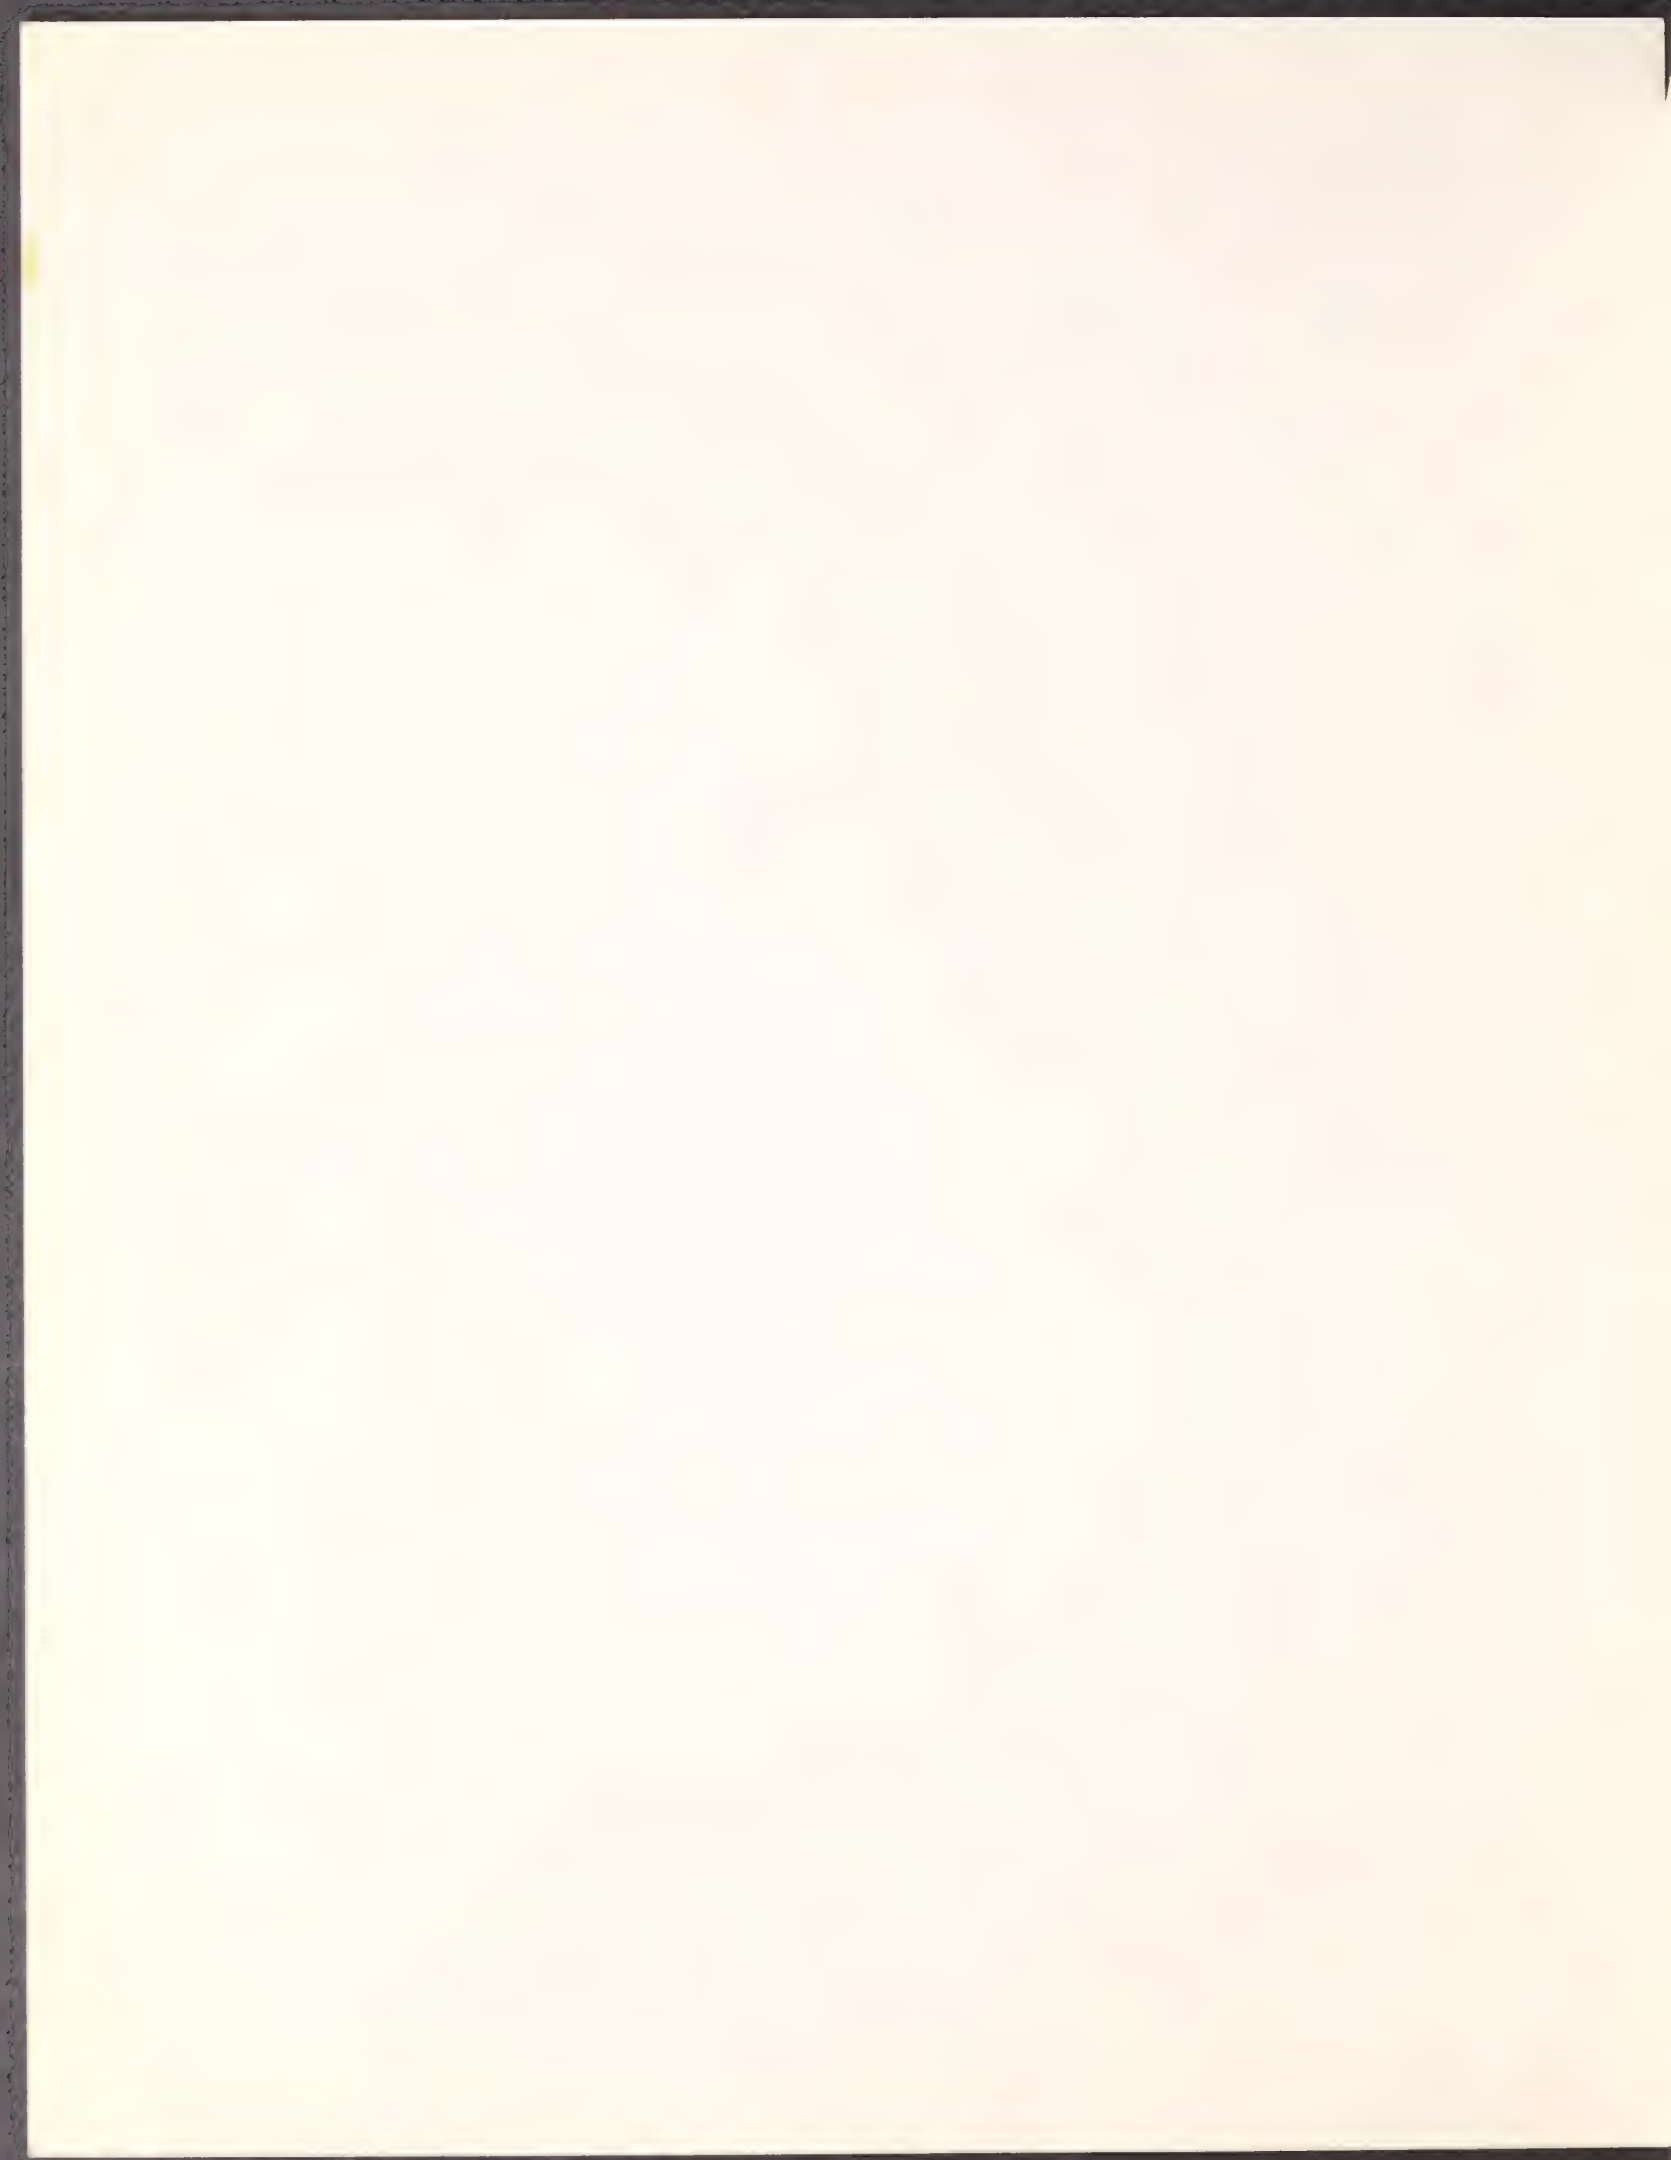

1. Sylvester Augustus, mar. Eliza M. Edwards. Sett. in Stonington.
2. Alinda Therese, died unmarried.
3. Horatio Vernon, mar. Alice C. Warkentin. Sett. in Winnipeg.
4. Herbert Lee, mar. Margaret E. Edwards. Sett. in Kingston.

Mary Ann and Abigail Ann were daughters of Ira Darling (born Dec. 28, 1787) and his wife, Mary Poulton (born March 21, 1793). They were married more than fifty years, until his death in 1863. Ira Darling was a staunch member and earnest exponent in the Methodist Church, and one of the pioneer leaders in Methodism in this part of Ontario. He came from Massachusetts to Canada in 1803, and three years later married Mary Poulton.
